The screenshot displays the South Carolina SAVIN (Statewide Automated Victim Information and Notification) website. The browser's address bar shows 'savin.sc.gov/'. The website header includes the date 'January 22, 2020' and the title 'Statewide Automated Victim Information and Notification system'. A sidebar on the left contains the South Carolina SAVIN logo with the tagline 'Keeping Victims Informed', and a list of links: Vinelink, Contacts, Crime Victim Resources, Frequently Asked Questions, SCDC Division of Victim Services, and County Facilities. Below these links are icons for VINEmobile and a 'Follow @scsavin' button. The main content area features contact numbers: 'For more information, please call: 803.896.3853' and 'To register for notification, please call: 1.866-SC SAVIN' and '1.866.727.2846'. A 'Home' and 'FAQs' navigation bar is present. The text describes the SC SAVIN program as a network of incarceration facilities, the state prison system, and community supervision services. It states that SC SAVIN is a free service available 24 hours a day in English and Spanish, powered by VINE. It provides information and notifications regarding offenders. Crime victims, law enforcement officers, and concerned citizens are welcome to use the system to search for an offender or register for notifications by telephone at 1.866.SCSAVIN (1.866.727.2846) or by visiting the VINELink website at https://www.vinelink.com/vinelink/initMap.do and clicking on South Carolina. A 'Public Service Announcement' section is at the bottom. The footer contains the copyright notice: 'Copyright © 2008-2020 SAVIN | Statewide Automated Victim Information and Notification system'. The Windows taskbar at the bottom shows the search bar, taskbar icons, and system clock indicating 9:11 AM on 1/22/2020.
